

I urge you to oppose harmful changes in regulations regulations which would allow a single corporation to own various media in the same area and thus have a monopoly on the news. The U.S. press, radio and TV are already too much influenced by corporate agendas and do not reflect the real world situation.